10/25: Red Ribbon Character Week

This year's Red Ribbon Theme focuses on the individual student, those who select to put their energy into choices that show respect of themselves and contribution to their local and global community.

Our spirit week will focus on picture books that unpack the #MyStory and positive contributions of others. Each day, we will unpack another picture book that underscores the power of positive action and leadership.

CHARACTER COSTUME PARADE

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 29, 2021

2:30PM, NES PLAYGROUND

Students and staff are invited to feature their favorite character in our Fall Character Costume Parade. Have the book? Your child may bring it in on 10/29/21.

The costume/book should accompany students to school in a bag, labeled with the student's name. We thank you kindly for ensuring that your child's costume meets these guidelines:

- No pretend weapons, blood, or costumes that are scary and/or depict violence or horror
- Use school-aged appropriate themes for costume and dress
- Dress code guidelines apply to costumes
- Keep costumes simple so students can dress quickly

Parents/Guardians are welcome to attend this outside parade. Please be mindful of those around you and distance yourselves as a part of our health and safety plan. Entrance and exit to the parade will occur thru our playground gates located on the right side of our parking lot. Please check in with the building staff who will welcome your arrival.

We remind all visitors that pets and tobacco products are not permitted on school property.

PLEASE NOTE: One classroom volunteer (sign up and clearances required) will join the class at 2:15PM to assist students, as needed, with their character costume. No inside visitors permitted on this day/for this event. MS/HS siblings may not accompany volunteers for this event. In addition, younger siblings or infants are not permitted to accompany volunteers.

10/29: Fall Character Costume Parade

NES Students and staff are invited to culminate Red Ribbon (Picture Book) Character Week, by participating in a Fall Character Costume Parade, spotlighting a favorite character of their selection. Guidelines are outlined in the PDF attachment. The classroom teacher will reach out via Seesaw, if there is a need for one volunteer during this time.
