I can figure out the surface area of a three-dimensional pyramid by using a net.

Notes:

The surface area of a solid is the sum of the areas of all of its faces, measured in square units.

A net is a two-dimensional representation of a solid.

